

WE MAKE NUTRITIOUS DELICIOUS

Nutritious? Without a doubt! House of Raeford's rotisserie-seasoned pulled chicken products meet National School Lunch Program requirements for menu patterns. Delicious? You bet! These tender morsels are fully-cooked, pulled from select young birds and seasoned for the tantalizing taste of rotisserie-roasted chicken. Available in all-white or white/dark chicken, our pulled products provide a simple way to give any menu item a flavor boost. They're ideal for sandwiches, soups and salads, pizza, tacos and many other entrée options that appeal to students of all ages.

A Leader You Can Count On

1 While we make “nutritious” delicious for students, House of Raeford also makes it easier for you! Working as your partner in meal planning, we'll help you stay on budget, while ensuring good nutrition and student satisfaction at every level. We're well versed and up to date on all requirements for school feeding programs. Our school nutrition and R&D professionals work together to stay on the cutting edge of product development, so we can continue to be a leader in providing healthy chicken products for student lunches.

2 Founded as a small family operation in the 1920's, House of Raeford has grown to become a leading chicken producer, known for our outstanding product quality. Still family-owned, we take pride in our commitment to always “do the right thing.”

3 We have facilities near our southeastern market customers, so we can be more flexible and responsive. Our superior service and delivery includes fast turnaround for urgent and unforeseen needs.
